

I strongly believe we should continue the "No Call List". It greatly enhances my quality of life. It also helps to relieve the stress of unwanted/confusing calls to the elderly population that I work with through my volunteer efforts.